In re Application of: On et al.

Application No.: 10/037,933

Filed: September 22, 2003

For: State Chicago-Innovation Enclosure

The owner, James Earl Henderson, Jr., of 100 percent interest in the instant application hereby disclaims, except as provided below, the terminal part of the statutory term of any patent granted on the instant application which would extend beyond the expiration date of the full statutory term patent No. 6,837,247 as the term of said prior patent is defined in 35 U.S.C. 164 and 173, and as the term of said prior patent is presently characterized by any terminal disclaimer. The owner hereby agrees that any patent so granted on the instant application shall be enforceable only for and during such period that it and the prior patent are commonly owned. This agreement runs with any patent granted on the instant application and is binding upon the grantee, its successors or assigns.

In making the above disclaimer, the owner does not disclaim the terminal part of the term of any patent granted on the instant application that would extend to the expiration date of the full statutory term as defined in 35 U.S.C. 164 and 173 of the prior patent, the term of said prior patent is presently characterized by any terminal disclaimer, in the event that said prior patent later:

- expires for failure to pay a maintenance fee;
- is held unenforceable;
- is found invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction;
- is voluntarily disclaimed in whole or in part under 37 CFR 1.321;
- has all claims canceled by a reexamination certificate;
- is reissued; or
- is in any manner terminated prior to the expiration of its full statutory term as presently characterized by any terminal disclaimer.
